

Entry to ICC and general guidelines

The ICC building will have 2 level of security checks for entry

1. At the perimeter – there will be a metal detector and bag check, please note sharp objects and glass bottles will not be permitted.
2. On entry to the ICC building through the main doors individual tickets will be scanned. Members should photograph their ticket prior, so it is clear and readable by a scan machine in the case that their tickets are misplaced. We cannot guarantee a seat if a ticket is lost or if the photo is not readable. A ticket is the correct access and a photo should be used only if the ticket is misplaced.
3. There will be a ticket box office on the side of the building next to the VIP area, where questions regarding tickets can be addressed
4. Attendees should check their tickets when arriving inside the theater, and that they are sitting in the right seat. There will be several ushers who can assist
5. The main doors to the public will open at 5:30pm. The attendees should be seated by 6:30pm
6. There will be prelude music from 6:10pm to 7:00pm.
7. There will be security and policemen in attendance who will assist about security issues
8. St John's be present in the event of first aid help. Attendees that are experiencing medicinal issues should contact an usher or security for directions
9. There are plenty of car parks available for the general public at a cost of approximately $35
10. Individuals arriving after 7pm may lose their seats to people who do not have a ticket
11. There is disability access and seating. These seats should have been identified to the organizers before 13th May 2019. Priority will be given to those in wheelchairs and their carers. Unfortunately, there will not be room for additional friends or family in the disable area.
12. Those who have requested and granted a disabled entry will pick up their tickets from the ticket box office next to the VIP entry
13. Children under 2 will be permitted without a ticket, however they are expected to sit on an adult's lap if they do not have a seat allocated for them.
